

Who does what?

Find out what you can do and what is Huge's responsibility.

The tenant is responsible for:

- Reporting any problems with the apartment on an ongoing basis. If a tenant repeatedly fails to let in a worker or inspector at an agreed time, he or she will be charged SEK 400.
- Cleaning out u-bends and drains in the bathroom.
- Taking care of oven and grill trays. The tenant must cover the cost of any cracked or broken stove rings.
- Keeping vegetable compartments, shelves, door compartments and other storage in good condition during your tenancy.
- Changing fuses and taking care of your own electric cables. Huge must first approve any supplementary electrics and ensure the installation is carried out by an approved professional. E.g. installation of a washing machine.
- Covering the cost of any repair or replacement of security locks. This is not the case for security doors installed by Huge.
- Covering the cost of replacement of cylinder or security locks in the case of a lost key. The tenant must also cover any costs for new keys/key fobs for the property where necessary.
- Cover the cost of broken inner windowpanes and maintaining or replacing Persian blinds where necessary.
- Keeping the storage locked at all times, even when not in use, and looking after the accompanying padlock.
- Ensuring that flammable liquids or explosive materials are not kept in the storage. An apartment can house a maximum of five litres of flammable liquids.

- Changing light bulbs in the apartment, except for oven, freezer and fridge bulbs.
- Cleaning kitchen filters and fans and replacing when necessary.
- Letting Huga know, when the contract period comes to an end, if any chosen equipment or machinery needs dismantling. If not the tenant will get responsibility for the equipment. During the contract period payment for the machinery/equipment is shown on the bill. Thereafter the fee and equipment annotation
- Ensuring the telephone jacks in the apartment work. Huga is responsible for the first jack, which is usually in the hall.
- Ensuring the telephone jacks in the apartment work. Huga is responsible for the first jack, which is usually in the hall.
- Arranging agreements with the various companies for any TV and digital services. Rent includes ComHem's basic package for TV channels.
